ORDER:

It has been brought to the notice of Government by the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad that all the staff members including the Deputy Commissioner of Malkajgiri Circle of GHMC who attended office on 26.7.2007 left the office abruptly at about 3.00 P.M. after knowing the trap of Sri Ch.Ganesh, Senior Assistant of Malkajgiri Circle and this unbecoming conduct of officials is nothing but lack of devotion to duty and integrity and contravention of rule 3(1) of APCS(conduct) Rules, 1964.

2. Sri Md.Ahmmmed Ali, Revenue Inspector, Malkagiri Circle of GHMC is one among them who left the office abruptly. The Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau requested for initiation of departmental action against him.

3. The Commissioner and Special Officer, GHMC vide his letter 3rd read above furnished the report of Zonal Commissioner, North Zone which contain the circumstances under which Sri Md.Ahmmmed Ali, Revenue Inspector, Malkajiri Circle of GHMC left the office.

4. The Government after careful examination of the report of Zonal Commissioner, North Zone, GHMC observe that the reasons put fourth by Sri Md.Ahmmmed Ali, Revenue Inspector, Malkagiri Circle of GHMC are not tenable and his absence appear to be a planned one as a matter of resent against the ACB trap of his colleague and mass absence in public office without permission attract conduct rules, 1964.

5. The Government therefore impose a minor punishment of 'Censure' on Sri Md.Ahmmmed Ali, Revenue Inspector, Malkagiri Circle of GHMC for his above misconduct.

6. The Commissioner and Special Officer shall take further necessary action.
